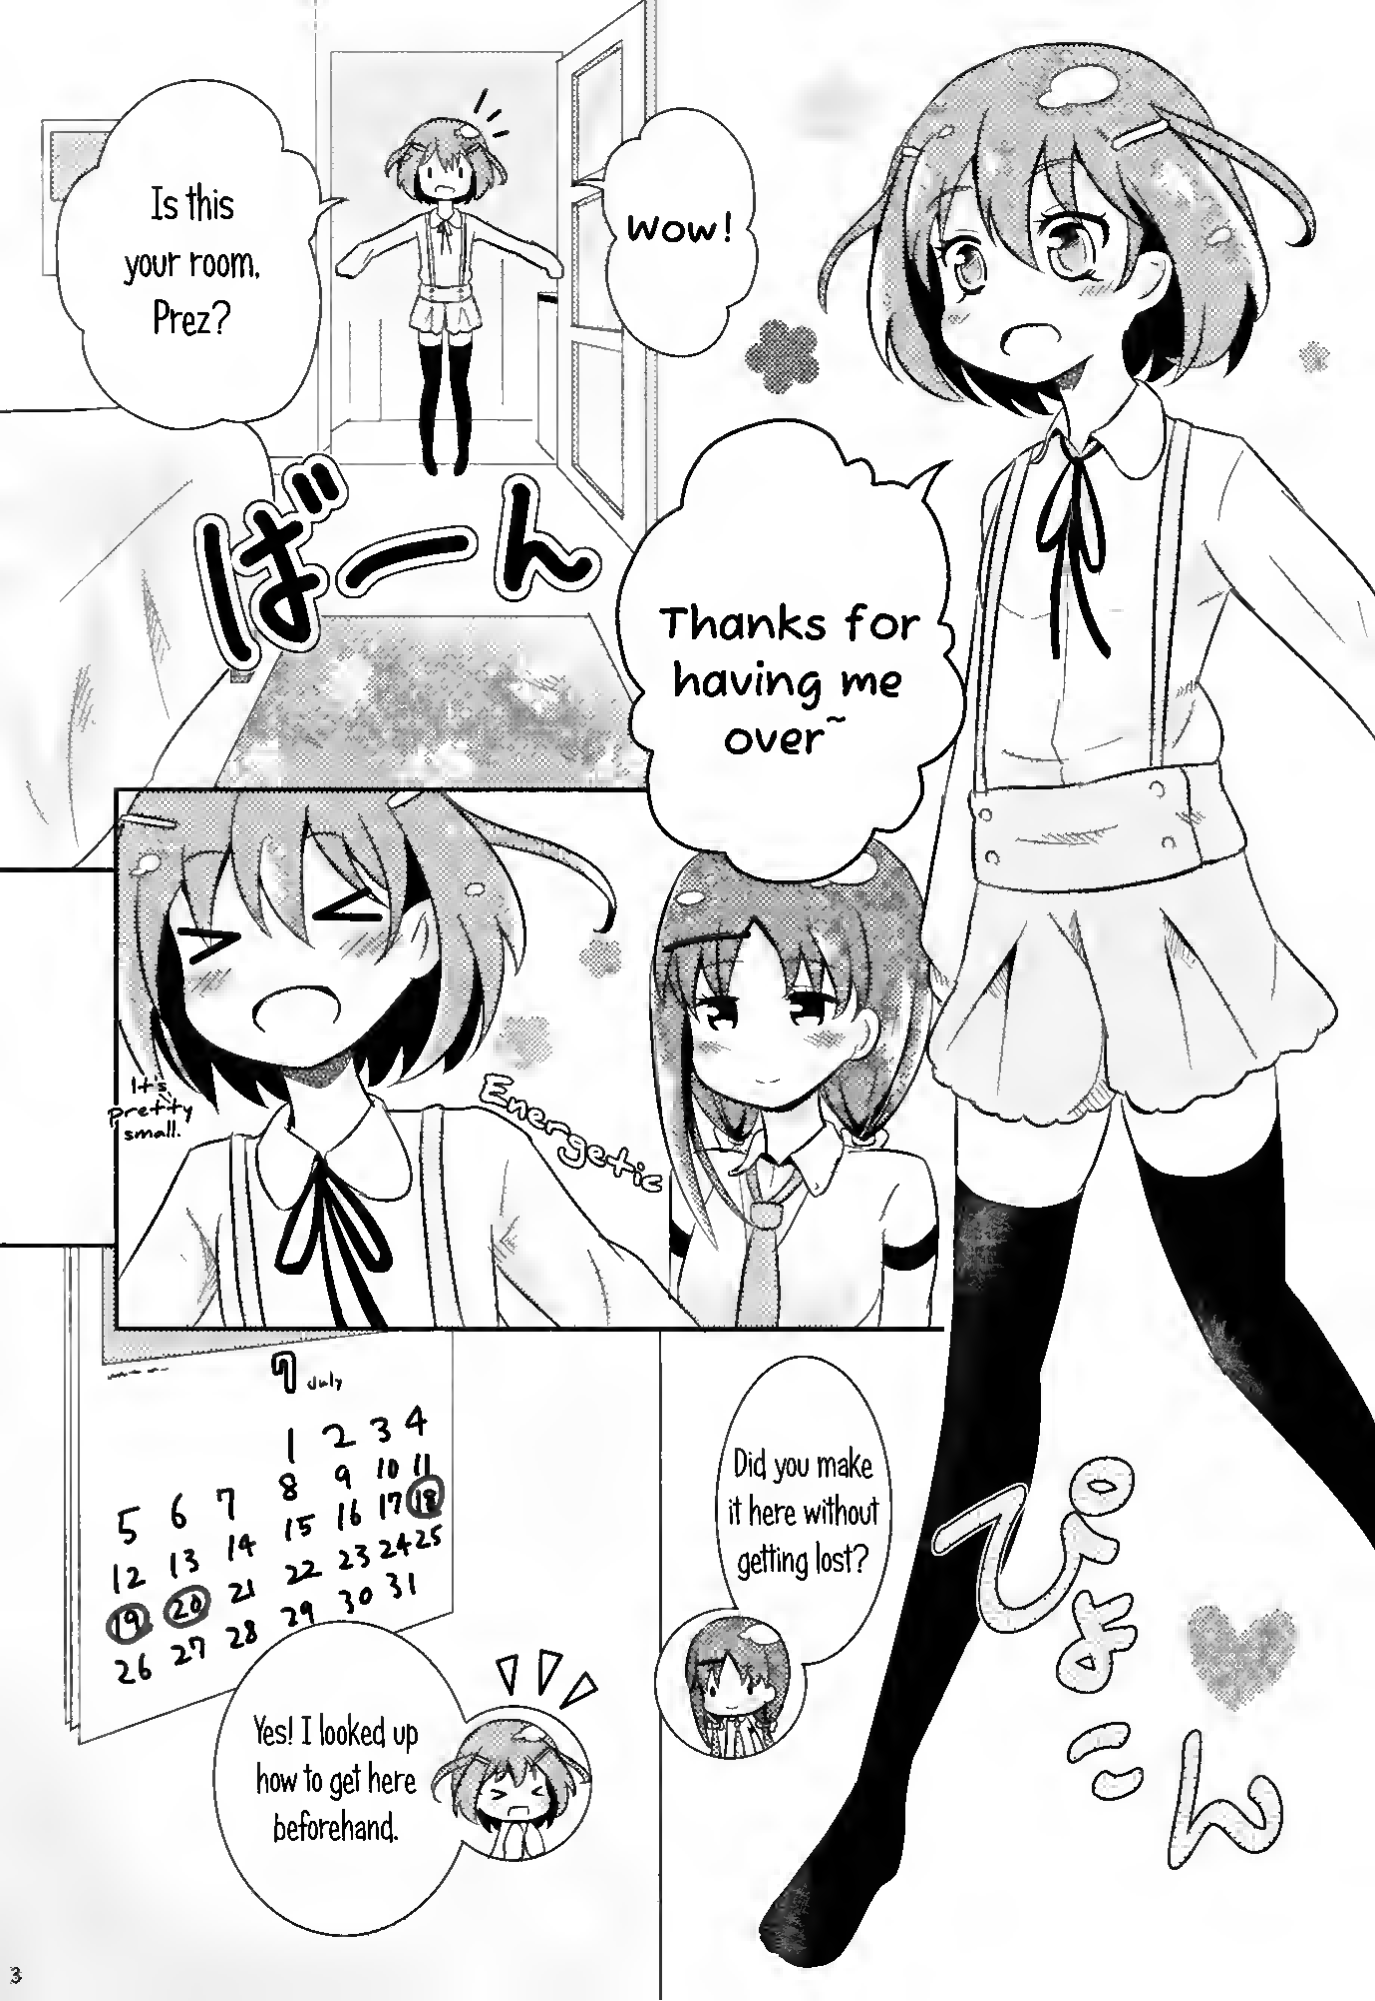
Foreword

I think 'Reservation' is an ability well suited to erotic works, which was the inspiration for this book. Is there any convenient place to study Saga Dialect? At first I wanted to draw Mairu x Himeko in their Uryuugari years. However, no scenes with them in that time appeared in the actual story, but I just had to draw it. That's how this story came to be set in that blank space where Mairu is in her first year of high school and Himeko is in her last year of middle school. It sure is nice to see them growing up.



Is this your room, Prez?
Wow!

Afterword

And so, this was a book where Himeko-chan became completely dependent on her Prez. In the official works, it seems that Mairu's sensations were passed on to Himeko, but I thought it would work this way too.
I really love the thought of them sharing each other's sensations. Though it flowing one way is still something like gospel, so I would also like to do a story like that. Ah, yes, Shizu can go up to 100 gears, Toki can see 100 turns ahead, Awaawa is in grade 100 and will win 100 times, but the distance between Uryuugari and Shindouji is over 100km, did you know that everybody? Google it.
The cuteness of their plain clothes in episode 15 was a sin.
Mixing and matching their outfits...

Dentaru-san drew a cute Mairu and Himeko picture on the next page for me. Thanks!!
